

CONNECTING VOLUNTEERS to VOLUNTEERING OPPORTUNITIES

WHAT WE DO

- JVN connects volunteers to charities and organisations according to their skills, interests, and availability.
- JVN has helped over 7,000 people – from students to seniors – find meaningful volunteering opportunities.
- JVN is a faith partner of NCVO and supports over 350 Jewish and non-Jewish charities, community institutions and places of worship.
- JVN promotes best practice in volunteer management across the community.
- JVN believes everyone should have the chance to volunteer and provides specific family-friendly volunteering opportunities, and also mentors to those requiring extra support in their volunteering.
- JVN recommends hundreds of diverse volunteering opportunities. You can choose to volunteer on a regular basis, or to help out at one-off charity events – whatever fits your schedule

.....

THINK VOLUNTEERING, THINK JVN

www.jvn.org.uk

CONNECTING VOLUNTEERS to VOLUNTEERING OPPORTUNITIES

WHY VOLUNTEER?

- Become an active member of your community
- Fill your time by making a difference to someone's life
- Learn new skills, gain new experiences and build your confidence
- Meet new people, explore your career choices and boost your options

Find an experience with JVN that is challenging, meaningful, rewarding and enjoyable. Whatever you want to do and however much time you can give, you can make a difference!

To find your perfect volunteering opportunity, visit www.jvn.org.uk or call us on 0208 203 6427

THINK VOLUNTEERING, THINK JVN

0208 203 6427

info@jvn.org.uk

www.jvn.org.uk

Wohl Campus for Jewish Education, 44a Albert Road, London NW4 2SJ

Facebook.com/JewishVolunteeringNetwork

@jvn_org_uk

Charity no. 1130719

www.jvn.org.uk